2019 eHuddle Gathers Church Leaders in San Diego

For two and a half days last month, evangelism directors of conferences and unions, church administrators, pastors, innovators, and other leaders gathered at eHuddle in San Diego to share, learn, and dialogue on how the church can more effectively reach people in a growing, secular culture. During the meeting, more than 30 presenters shared tried and tested ways—often referred to as traditional soul-winning methods—to reach out to their communities, while others shared innovative, creative, and new approaches for how they engage their local community and

AGP Visits the Crosswalk Church

Recently, our All God’s People team had the opportunity to visit Redlands, California, and speak with Tim Gillespie, lead pastor of the Crosswalk Seventh-day Adventist Church. During the interview, Pastor Gillespie spoke with us about how his church helps remote churches connect to Crosswalk. The satellite congregations reap the benefits from the programming at the main church. Learn more in this week’s All God’s People!
