Northern California’s Urban Camp Meeting Intentionally Engages with Community

After two years in one location, the Northern California Conference’s Urban Camp Meeting said goodbye to Stockton, California, on June 20-22, 2019. This year’s theme was “Time to Engage” — for next year, the camp meeting will engage in a new place. And it’s all part of the plan. The goal of Urban Camp Meeting is outreach. Every two years it

WAF Assists with Professional Charitable Estate Planning Services

Have you ever wondered what the difference is between a Will and a Trust? Do you need a Will but haven’t gotten around to getting one done? The Pacific Union has a specific ministry dedicated to assisting you in charitable estate planning. Western Adventist Foundation, or WAF for short, was created and incorporated in 1997, and is an organization that provides services and support for all of our conferences—both large and small.

Estate Planning Seminar in Glendale

If you live in Southern California, mark your calendars for July 21 and a Sunday Brunch Seminar at Scholl Canyon Estates. The seminar, titled “Estate Planning Mistakes You Don’t Want to Make,” will be presented by Richard Harrison, General Counsel/Corporate Secretary of Western Adventist Foundation. Walk-ins are welcome! For reserved seating and info, contact: Geof Park, gpark@sccsda.org.

July Recorder Focuses on Forgiveness

The July issue of the Recorder is on forgiveness and what it means to be restored to wholeness by God’s grace. What does it mean to be ever and always safe in God’s hands - despite our weaknesses, our failures, our sins?
