At the International Camporee, Pathfinders explored four hangars filled with booths, expos, displays, and activities. Visiting with young people in Hanger C was Bianca Arao, an Adventist Christian Fellowship representative for the Pacific Union and vice president of her ACF chapter at UC Davis. “In community college, I didn’t really have a network of people my age, of young adults that were in the church,” she says. “When I went to Davis and I found this group, it was really key in developing my spiritual life.”
