SA President Megan Belz Plans Big Year for Pacific Union College

Meet Megan Belz, this year’s student association president at Pacific Union College in Angwin, California. Megan is a senior business management major, an animal lover, and a Jesus-follower. This year, she and her team have big plans for PUC—from exciting events and crazy videos to God-centered worship and senate inspired changes. “I cannot wait to get to know you all better and become the close-knit family I know we can be,” she says, “because growing close to one another is a perfect example of what God’s love is about.”

Adventist Health Encourages Breast Cancer Awareness at Community Health Fair

Tehachapi, California community members received free health screenings and health information in late September during the Adventist Health Tehachapi Valley's Third Annual Community Health Fair and Senior Resource Day! The fair was just in time for Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Adventist Health AIS Cancer Center Registrar Ann Hildebrand taught fairgoers how to perform self-exams for breast lumps and also handed out vouchers for discount cash-pay mammograms good for the month of October.
